DUDLEY UNEMPLOYMENT 'BLACK SPOT'

Alarming new official figures have revealed Dudley South to be one of the country's unemployment 'black spots'. Unemployment in September 2009 - at 2,252 - was up 41% on May 1997 and up a worrying 87% on September 2008. Meanwhile there were ten jobseekers for each of the 314 Jobcentre Plus vacancies in Dudley South.

Chris Kelly commented: "Labour is now the party of unemployment. The Conservatives have launched a free to search, free to post online tool updated daily - www.GetDudleyWorking.com - to help local people find employment opportunities. Internet access is available at Dudley Council libraries. I would urge all job seekers to log onto the site to help with the search for employment."

Five Conservative measures to help victims of the recession:

- A big, bold and simple National Loan Guarantee Scheme to help get credit flowing and save jobs.
- A two year Council Tax freeze, worth over £200 for the typical family.
- Tax breaks for companies which create new jobs, and cuts in National Insurance and Corporation Tax for all companies.

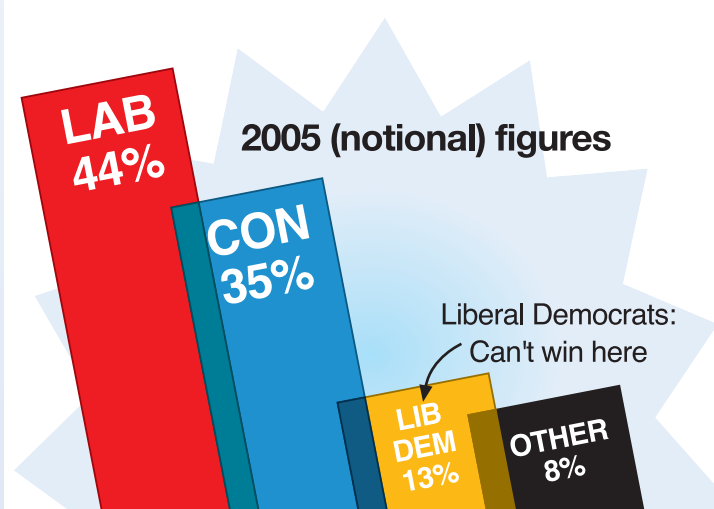

- Up to £6,500 worth of energy efficiency improvements for every household, saving energy and reducing bills.
- Abolish stamp duty for nine out of ten first-time buyers.

And over the long term we will get the public finances back under control with an Office for Budget Responsibility, so no Labour Government can ever bankrupt this country again.

IF YOU WANT TO KICK GORDON OUT, VOTE CONSERVATIVE!

The next General Election will be very close. The voters of Brockmoor & Pensnett (part of the Dudley South constituency) will play a key role in deciding whether the Conservatives or Labour win the election.

Figures from the last General election in 2005 show that only the Conservatives can beat Labour in Dudley South. Other parties are too far behind, and a vote for them will keep Gordon Brown and Labour in power. If you want to help change the country and kick Gordon Brown and Labour out, voting Conservative in Brockmoor & Pensnett at the next election is the only way to do it.

A FAIR POLICY ON IMMIGRATION

Conservative Leader David Cameron has pledged to allow Parliament to set an annual limit on immigration, and to introduce a proper border police force into the UK.

We believe Immigration can be a real benefit to the UK, but only if it is properly controlled with its impact on the economy, public services and social cohesion considered.

Therefore, Conservatives would introduce an annual limit to control the numbers admitted that takes into account the wider effects on society and the provision of public services, and a dedicated border police force to stop people entering the UK illegally.

Caring and campaigning for our community

Dear Residents

I have lived in Pensnett all my married life. My husband's family have lived here for generations. I care passionately about my local community and will fight tooth and nail to protect services and do everything I can to encourage the Council to invest more resources in Brockmoor and Pensnett.

What I will not do, though, is take the electorate for granted nor will I use issues my constituents care about for my own political ends. This is why I am disgusted that one of my ward colleagues, Labour Councillor Judy Foster, seems hell-bent on making political capital from the proposed closure of Pensnett School.

I will tell people straight and I will tell them what I believe not what I think is popular for political gain. I passionately care about my local area but I cannot support propping up a school that over the years has been found wanting by independent inspectors. Our children, your children, and the future children of Pensnett deserve a much better education than they are currently receiving.

I know many of you agree and that is why ever increasing numbers of you are sending your children to other local schools such as Holly Hall, Crestwood and The Kingswinford.

If Pensnett School does close then it will be because of the need to provide better opportunities for local children. The real fight is to secure the sports hall and other facilities for local future use.

My objective is to ensure what is best for the children of Pensnett not political advantage. Therefore I hope all Pensnett Councillors stop using the closure of the school for their own political ends.

Yours Sincerely,

Cllr Sue Greenaway
