

by scrapping the perks and cutting the cost of Parliament. Most importantly, we'll take power away from the political elite to give you more control over your life. So that's the choice at this election: five more years of Gordon Brown's tired government making things worse or the change this country needs with the Conservatives.

Brown's waste and debt to get our economy moving. We'll support families and back people who do the right thing to encourage responsibility in our society and we'll make sure pensioners are supported as well. And we need big changes in our political system too. We've led the way on cleaning up MPs' expenses and we'll finish the job

In just a few weeks we will have the most important election for a generation. Our economy is burdened by huge debts and millions are out of work. Our society is broken by crime and irresponsible behaviour. Our political system is in a mess. We can't go on like this. A Conservative government will take bold action on all fronts. We'll cut Gordon

SUPPORTING FAMILIES

Families are the foundation of a strong society. Our plans to improve Sure Start with 4,200 extra health visitors, extend flexible working, improve parental leave and open new schools will help make Britain the most family-friendly country in Europe.

RAISING STANDARDS IN SCHOOLS

We will create a new generation of schools run by teachers and responsible to parents, not micromanaged by politicians. Parents will get what they want: smaller schools with smaller classes, good behaviour, great teachers and restored confidence in the curriculum.

BACKING THE NHS

David Cameron has made the NHS our number one priority. We back it and we want to improve it for everyone. The Conservatives will increase spending on the NHS every year. We are the only party to have made this commitment.

GETTING BRITAIN WORKING

Labour are now the party of unemployment. Conservatives will get Britain working again by boosting enterprises. We will abolish taxes on the first ten jobs created by new businesses, promote green jobs and help people off welfare and into work.

A RECORD OF ACTION IN DUDLEY SOUTH

Since he was selected as your Conservative candidate nearly 3 years ago Chris has worked hard on behalf of local residents to deal with issues such as anti-social behaviour and traffic congestion, spoken out in support of local businesses and attended many community events.

LEFT: SUPPORTING LOCAL BUSINESSES

Chris comes from a local family business background so enjoys visiting local firms and hearing about their successes. He knows that successful local businesses are key to our future and will push for lower taxes to help them grow and create jobs.

ABOVE: LISTENING TO CRIME CONCERNS

Chris has attended dozens of Partners And Communities Together (PACT) police meetings across Dudley South to hear local residents' concerns about law and order. Chris relayed all of these concerns to the Shadow Home Secretary on his recent visit to Dudley.

RIGHT: TACKLING CONGESTION

Chris spoke at the Conservative Party Conference in Birmingham on behalf of local residents frustrated by congested roads. As a local motorist Chris is pleased that the Brierley Hill by-pass is now open and helping to improve journey times.

LEFT: SUPPORTING THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

Chris likes attending community events. He enjoyed the St. George's day parade in Brierley Hill and finished fourth in last year's Wordsley Festival fun run! He has also taken part in a charity football match at the Dell Stadium.

ABOVE: BACKING THE NHS

Chris knows how important the NHS is to people in Dudley. A Conservative government would support the NHS and funding for it would increase every year. And as countless nurses have told him, treating patients must take priority, not filling in forms.

RIGHT: SUPPORTING OUR PUBS AND POST OFFICES

Chris has been pressing for urgent measures to save our pubs. At the same time Labour have axed several local Post Offices. Chris understands that they're an integral part of local communities and that not everyone has banking facilities.
