

Chris Kelly MP

Member of Parliament for Dudley South (Conservative)

Including Wordsley, Kingswinford, Brockmoor, Pensnett, Wall Heath, Brierley Hill, Netherton, Woodside and St. Andrews

Prior to the General Election I contacted many of you through e-mail, telephone, direct mail or - for several thousand properties - plain, old-fashioned door knocking.

I had asked for your support in helping us to get rid of a Labour Government that had failed on almost every count.

Many of you answered that call for help and, as a result, the Conservatives overturned Labour's majority here in Dudley South with a 9.51% swing from Labour to the Conservatives.

This has resulted in a majority of almost 4,000. I cannot thank enough those who gave their support to my campaign.

I can start by writing personally to many expressing my thanks and gratitude for the trust you have placed in both myself and in the Conservative Party.

I shall always do my best for my constituents and will endeavour to work hard so that I keep the promises I made during my election campaign.

One of those commitments was to avoid high expense claims such as we saw from the last discredited Parliament. My expense claims will be low and not extravagant. I will always treat taxpayers' money with the utmost respect.

One of my first priorities is to raise the profile of the many small to medium sized businesses within the Dudley South constituency. It is vital that we regenerate this area with jobs so that, when we finally do return to growth, Dudley South is best placed to make the most of that revival as and when it occurs.

I will also make myself accessible to the public in Dudley South who elected me as their first Conservative Member of Parliament for 18 years. My contact details are always freely available and I can be reached by phone, e-mail, Facebook and via my constituency office in Netherton. I also hold regular surgeries throughout the Dudley South constituency.

Details of these surgeries are available in the press, on line and displayed at community centres and libraries throughout the constituency.

Thank you, once again, for your support on 6th May and for the opportunity to represent the people of Dudley South at Westminster.

Yours sincerely,

Chris Kelly MP
